Acknowledgement

First of all, I thank the Holy Spirit for the inspiration of this book and encouragement that kept me writing this book.

Every great accomplishment is a product of the contribution and combination of many people's effort. I would like to thank Sir Prudent Chipeya, the Director of Phenomenal Writers. Thank you for making sure that there is quality in the work. To all staff of Phenomenal Writers who took time to re-edit this book to be as beautiful as it is, thank you as well.

Lastly, I thank you all members of Phenomenal Youths' Hub. You're the best people I have ever met in this world.

Introduction

YOU are not a product of prediction but of predestination. There's a volume of the book for your life. You're not just a function of an intercourse of two humans but a product of the agenda of heaven that is screaming to find expression in the earth. Romans 8:19 says, "For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God." You were born to manifest something in your generation, and creation has been waiting for you. You're not just part of the numbers. Your birthing was because there's something that should be manifesting on earth because of you. You came here as the Word of God in flesh. You're not just a girl or a boy; you're a Word that has become flesh.

John 1:14

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

You're a Word that has become flesh. You're not just a fellow walking on the streets. You were not just born of the will of flesh and blood; you were born of the will of God. You were not just born in your family, you're a Word that God sent into the world to become flesh.

INTRODUCTION

John 1:13 says, “Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.” You see! You were born of the will of God, which is the Word of God. You were not born by yourself, you’re a Word heaven sent into a generation. There is a will of God in the volume of the book that you came to fulfil.

Hebrews 10:7

Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

There’s the volume of the book, containing the will of God which you were born to fulfil in your generation. There’s a face of God that you’re meant to show to a generation. There’s a dimension of God that you’re born to show to the world. There’s what only you can give to this generation that no one else will ever give. There's a will that was written about your life; you're not existing by mistake at all in this world. You're not a biological accident, but you were born out of the book carrying the will of God which you must serve to your generation.

Acts 13:36

For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

There's a volume of a book just written about your life and for your life. Your life isn't a coincidence; it's a clear construction by divinity. You came to serve a generation with the will of the Lord. You must give your generation something. You must not leave your generation the way you found it.

INTRODUCTION

That's what the young Jeremiah did. At first, he thought he was one of the kids at home. But God encountered him and told him that he wasn't just a young man but there was what was written about his life. There was prophecy over his life. There was the volume of the book that was waiting for Him to awake and align himself with it. He wasn't just a young person moving on the streets, going to school, playing games, eating at home, and being a dad's boy. He never knew there was a Word written about him.

It was after the encounter that he understood that he was a prophet to the nations, a prophet to a generation. He wasn't just one of those kids at home moving up and down. There was something special and unique about his life in God that had existed before the ages. My dear reader, you must understand that your life is older than you. Your life started before you.

Jeremiah 1:4-6

Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations. Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child.

You're not a product of chance. You're not a product of prediction, but predestination. You were known before you came in the world. Before you came into your mother's womb, you were already known by God. There's a volume of the book about your life. There was what was written about your life in the studios of eternity. Before you entered your mother's womb, you were in the studios of eternity.

Hebrews 11:23-27

By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment. By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward. By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

You see! Moses kept being a good boy in the palace until the day that he found that there was a volume of the book about him. When he got into the volume of the book, he discovered that there was more to his life. Beloved, this book seeks to invite you to the volume of the book where you will find the spiritual definition of your life. Let's journey together in this book as we uncover the volume of the book written about your life, and unravel the path to coming to your real self.

PREDESTINATION PRINCIPLE

HAVE you ever asked yourself how many beginnings do we have in the Bible? Well, we have two beginnings. But is that not confusing? How can we have two beginnings in the Bible when the Bible is one? John 1:1 says, “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.” You see! In John, it says that in the beginning was the Word of God. But if you also look in Genesis, you’ll find a beginning which different from the one in John. Genesis 1:1 says, “In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.”

So both in Genesis and John, the Bible talks about the beginning, but which one is the real beginning? If we have two beginnings in the Bible, which one is the real beginning? You'll realize that all of them are beginnings but the difference is that one is a Spiritual beginning while the other one is a Physical beginning. So there are two beginnings in the Bible - the spiritual and the physical.

Similarly, every person is like that. Every person has both the spiritual and physical beginning. Each person who comes into this world has a spiritual beginning and a physical beginning. Although the physical beginning comes first in the Bible, the Spiritual beginning is more important because it's what produces the physical beginning, despite coming later after the physical beginning. This is so because what is seen was made out of what isn't seen. So, the spiritual beginning is more important than the physical beginning.

Hebrews 11:3

Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

You see! The unseen is what made what is seen, implying that a spiritual beginning comes before your physical beginning.

But why is the beginning so important? The beginning is important because it's what gives a definition. You'll never find the definition of something until you find its beginning. You'll never find the definition of your life until you find the beginning.

Matthew 19:4-6

And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

In this preceding Scripture, the people Jesus was talking to never carried a right definition of the institution of marriage because they never understood the beginning. Until you understand the beginning, you'll never carry the right definition. Right and true definition comes when you understand the beginning.

PREDESTINATION PRINCIPLE

So, there's a spiritual definition of your life and there's also a physical definition of your life. The problem with many people is that they only have physical definition of their lives but they have not yet found the spiritual definition of their lives. If you only understand your physical beginning you will never have the spiritual definition of your life which will make you not to find the real you.

Jesus from a physical definition of His life he was the carpenter's son, the son of Joseph and Mary, but that wasn't His spiritual definition. Luke 4:22 says, “And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son?” You see! From the physical definition, Jesus was Joseph's son and a carpenter.

Matthew 13:54-57

And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works? Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas? And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things? And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

They thought like He was just a carpenter's son just because they never understood His spiritual definition. They knew His physical definition, not His spiritual definition. That's how a lot of people are today; they only have a physical definition of their lives because they haven't yet gone into the beginning to find their real self – the spiritual definition.

PREDESTINATION PRINCIPLE

You'll never find your real self until you go to your spiritual beginning. It's when you go to your spiritual beginning that you'll find your real self. You're not just a carpenter's son. You're not just Joseph and Mary's son. There's more to you, but you'll never find it until you go to your spiritual beginning and find your spiritual definition.

Luke 4:17-21

And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written, The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, To preach the acceptable year of the Lord. And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him. And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

So, Jesus went into the volume of the book and found the spiritual definition of His life. The spiritual definition of every man is found in the volume of the book. On the day He went into the volume of the book, He came out and said, “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me. He has anointed me...” And everyone was wondering. They never understood that it was His spiritual definition. They only knew His physical definition.

Another man was Gideon. He thought he was just a young man, surviving and hiding in life, just because he never understood the spiritual definition of his life.

Judges 6:12-16

And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him, The LORD is with thee, thou mighty man of valour. And Gideon said unto him, Oh my Lord, if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites. And the LORD looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites: have not I sent thee? And he said unto him, Oh my Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, my family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house. And the LORD said unto him, Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man.

Gideon said that he was coming from the smallest family in Israel and was the least in his life, because he never understood the spiritual definition of his life. But when the Angel came in the encounter, Gideon found out that he was a mighty man of valour and he was going to deliver Israel from the Midianites. When you find the spiritual definition of your life, you find the real you. Your spiritual definition is always different from your physical definition which usually comes from your background and your situations. There is more to you.

Judges 6:12, 15

And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him, The LORD is with thee, thou mighty man of valour...And he said unto him, Oh my Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, my family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house.

Your physical definition may say that you are poor in Manasseh and the least in your life, but your spiritual definition will come to you and say that you are a mighty man of valour. There is a spiritual definition for your life.

Another man who never understood his life's definition was Jacob. But through the encounter he had at Bethel, he discovered that he was not just Jacob; that there was a spiritual definition for his life.

Genesis 32:27-28

And he said unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob. And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed.

From his physical definition he was Jacob, but from his spiritual definition he was Israel. He found his spiritual definition when he went into the volume of the book. It is in the place of encounters where we are taken into our spiritual definitions. Until you go into the place of encounters, you will never find your spiritual definition. All men with spiritual definitions found them in the place of encounters. Encounters make you to ascend and journey beyond your physical beginning, into your spiritual beginning in God. In the place of encounters, you shift from your physical definition to your spiritual definition.

The Bible says in 2 Corinthians 3:18, “But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.” There is an image for your life which is the spiritual definition of your life, but you evolve from physical definition to your spiritual definition by encounters. That's why the preceding scripture says that as we behold in the mirror, we move from glory to glory. But what makes us to behold is encounters. It is ascension that brings you to the place of revelation of your life.

David may be a boy in the bush – that's his physical definition – but his spiritual definition said that he was the next king of Israel. Paul was a murderer and a killer according to his physical definition, but his spiritual definition said that he was an apostle. Peter was a reed according to his physical definition, but his spiritual definition described him to be a rock.

Ascension comes from encounters. You cannot ascend without encounters. It ascension that brings an introduction into the spiritual definition of your life. Your life started before you came here; there is an old path for your life in the volume of the book.

Jeremiah 6:16

Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

Jeremiah 18:15

Because my people hath forgotten me, they have burned incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in paths, in a way not cast up;

You see! There is an old path, an ancient path for your life. Your life started before you appeared. Your life was already completed before you started living. Your life was completed before it started. Jesus was not slain on the cross but He was slain before the foundation of the world. In Revelations 13:8, the Bible says, “And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.” This tells you that our lives were already completed before they started, all happening before foundations of the world.

Romans 8:29

For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.

Ephesians 1:11

In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestined according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:

God predestined you and I before the foundations of the world. Our destinies were already finished in Him before we all started living. Isaiah 46:10 says, “Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure...” Our God is the God who declares the end from the beginning. God does not begin what He has not yet ended. It is what God has ended that He begins. So, when God was beginning with your life, he already had an end for your life. There is an end for your life made even before you came. You did not come here to make your own end, but to reach the end God has for you.

Your fulfilment of destiny requires that you should be going anticlockwise, not clockwise. You find your real self by going backwards, not forward. This is done through encounters which give you precision and accuracy in the pursuit of destiny. Your life never started at before your birth; it's time to go backwards beyond your birthday into your spiritual beginning.

Psalms 139:13, 15-18

For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb...My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them. How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them! If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

You see! Your life started before your birth. You have come in the volume of the book to do the will of God! It's time for you to ascend to your spiritual definition, and when you come from there, it's when you say, "I have come to do your will, oh God!" As Psalm 40:7 says, "Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me,"

You will not fail God! You will not rob your generation!

PLANS PRINCIPLE

Beyond the Spiritual definition, the other thing you will discover as you journey in the volume of the book is the plans for your life. God has plans for your life, which are bigger and better than your plans. The best of your plans is nothing compared to the plans of God for your life. No matter how great your plan can be, it is smaller when compared to the plan of God for your life. The Bible in Jeremiah 29:11 says, “For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.”

God has plans for your life plans that are good, and not of evil. They are plans of peace and will give you an expected end. This is why Bishop David Oyedepo once said, “Man cannot become his best outside of God’s plans.” The plan of God is what will give you fulfilment in life. There is no fulfilment in life outside of God’s plans. In contrast, Dr Paul Enenche once said, “Success outside of God’s plans is failure indeed.” Becoming your best in life is in following God’s plans for your life. The plans of God are higher than your plans. You cannot be wiser than God.

Isaiah 55:8-9

For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

You see! The plans of God for your life are higher than your plans. Your plans can make you a tree but God's plan will make a forest. You were not born to be a tree but a forest, and you'll never become it outside of God's plans for your life. Your plans can give you a fruit but God's plan will give you a garden. The problem with Adam is that he ate the fruit to lose the garden, yet when he had the garden he had the fruit. So, God's plan is very big and by following it, you become big in life. Your plans can give you a pond but God's plan will give you an ocean.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

You were not just born to be a seed but to bring much fruit. You were not just born to be a seed but a forest. Why die a seed when you are meant to be a forest? To get to the places God has for you, you must follow His plan for your life. The plans of God are higher and they make high-flyers in life. You cannot become a high-flyer without the plans of God. Until you get into God's plan, the eagle in you will never emerge.

Genesis 12:1-4

Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee: And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed. So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran.

Abraham was in Haran, staying without a child, suffering in his father's house. But when he connected to the plans of God for his life, he turned out to be a mighty nation and he was blessed on every sides. In Genesis 24:1, the Bible says, “And Abraham was old, and well stricken in age: and the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things.” You see! He was blessed in all things because he aligned to the plans of God for his life. It is in the plans of God where your blessing in life is. It is in the plans of God where your best in life is. I look at my life, how much God has helped me, and I think how it could have happened if I was not in the plan of God for my life. The plans of God will take you very far than your plans.

Genesis 26:1-5

And there was a famine in the land, beside the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went unto Abimelech king of the Philistines unto Gerar. And the LORD appeared unto him, and said, Go not down into Egypt; dwell in the land which I shall tell thee of: Sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath which I sware unto Abraham thy father; And I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; Because that Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.

There was famine and every person was running away from the land of Gerar where Isaac was, who was also planning to run away. But before he left, God came through and interrupted him. He told him not to go but stay in the famine land, for that was where the plan of God was for his life. Now, see the result:

Genesis 26:6, 12-14

And Isaac dwelt in Gerar...Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year an hundredfold: and the LORD blessed him. And the man waxed great, and went forward, and grew until he became very great: For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of servants: and the Philistines envied him.

As Isaac stayed there, he became very great until the Philistines envied him. You don't know how much great you can become until you are in the plan of God for your life.

John 3:6-8

That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

The plans of God may not make sense but they make stars in life. They may not be straight but they make stars in life. When you are in the plans of God, you are like a wind that people cannot understand yet cannot ignore. All men who followed the plans of God, never made sense. Wind cannot be calculated – it is a mystery. You become like a wind when you walk in the plans of God, and you cannot be calculated. You cannot connect the dots when you're on this journey of destiny.

Genesis 37:20-34

Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, Some evil beast hath devoured him: and we shall see what will become of his dreams. And Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands; and said, Let us not kill him. And Reuben said unto them, Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him; that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again. And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they stript Joseph out of his coat, his coat of many colours that was on him; And they took him, and cast him into a pit: and the pit was empty, there was no water in it. And they sat down to eat bread: and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a company of Ishmeelites came from Gilead with their camels bearing spicery and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt. And Judah said unto his brethren, What profit is it if we slay our brother, and conceal his blood? Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmeelites, and let not our hand be upon him; for he is our brother and our flesh. And his brethren were content. Then there passed by Midianites merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmeelites for twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Joseph into Egypt. And he returned unto his brethren, and said, The child is not; and I, whither shall I go? And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood; And they sent the coat of many colours, and they brought it to their father; and said, This have we found: know now whether it be thy son's coat or no. And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat; an evil beast hath devoured him; Joseph is without doubt rent in pieces. And Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

On the journey of destiny, it sometimes looks like you have come to the end of your life, but it's when you see another chapter opening. Wind cannot be stopped. So when you are walking in the plans of God, because they cannot stop God, you cannot be stopped.

Acts 26:11-14

And I punished them often in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities. Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me. And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

Saul was fighting the church but when Jesus appeared, He asked him, "Why are you fighting me?” When you are in the plans of God people cannot stop you because they have to stop God first – but God is unstoppable. It is high time we have to get out of our small plans and get into the plans of God for our lives.

Matthew 4:19 says, “And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.” In your plans you may be a fisher of fish, but in alignment with God’s plan, you move from being a fisher of fish to being a fisher of men. What would you choose between being a fisher of men and a fisher of fish? There is more for you when you start walking in God’s plans for your life.

POTENTIAL PRINCIPLE

A STORY is told of a farmer who had cut trees and he was just using the woods at home for firewood. When a sculptor went to the farmer's house, he found that there was a tree trunk outside the house which the farmer wanted to burn because he thought it was useless and of no value. The sculptor told the farmer not to burn the wood but asked to take it to his house because he wanted to work on it. The farmer allowed him, because to him the wood was useless and nothing. The sculptor took the wood home and begun to work on it day and night, until he was able to make a masterpiece from the wood of a beautiful bird.

One day the farmer visited the sculptor and behold, he saw a very beautiful bird. And the farmer loved it and he was willing to pay and buy it at any price. He wanted to buy it at all cost. To the farmer's amazement, the sculptor told him that the beautiful bird that he wanted to buy so bad was the same useless wood he wanted to burn at his home.

Within the useless wood was a beautiful bird that the farmer was willing to buy at any price. So to say, there is what hidden within you. There is a hidden man in you. That's why there's a word called potential. Potential is the hidden man in you. The volume of the book will make you to understand your potentials.

You were not born empty. You never came into this generation empty. Instead, you came endowed with potentials and possibilities for greatness in life. There is what is hidden in you. There is more to you than what people know about you.

Inside every seed is a hidden tree, and inside every tree is hidden a forest. Inside every charcoal is a hidden diamond. Inside every sperm is hidden a human being. Inside every caterpillar is hidden a butterfly. Inside every egg is a full chicken. Inside every eaglet is an eagle. There is what is hidden inside of you.

The Bible in 2 Corinthians 4:7 says, “But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.” You see! There are treasures in you! You’re not empty, you have treasures. You’re not a trash to this generation. You’re not another number in the world. You genuinely matter to this age and time. When you find the treasure that is hidden in you, you become a treasure in your generation.

Potential is not known physically. Your real potential is in your spirit man. As a spiritual being, you cannot find your call until you are spiritual. Callings cannot be found when the physical is compared to the physical, but only when the spiritual is compared to the spiritual. There are eyes by which you see your potentials, not the ordinary eyes but the spiritual eyes.

1 Corinthians 2:13-14

Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

You see! You cannot understand your potentials if you operate as a natural man. You must stop operating as a natural man and start operating as a spiritual man if you must find your real potentials, because there is a treasure in your earthen vessel.

Ezekiel 37:1-11

The hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones, And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry. And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest. Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: "Surely I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live. And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone. And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them. Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army. Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

It was out of the dry bones that an army came out. You may be like the dry bones today, where you have given up on your life. You may be like the dry bones where you have been discouraged, disappointed, defeated, and made a conclusion that nothing will come out of you. It may be that people have concluded on you and closed the chapter about your life. But out of the bones was where the mighty man came out from.

There is an army in you, young man. You're not just one person but an army. As one man, you carry in you the abilities to do things that many people cannot do. Look at Samson:

he was not just one man but an army. Because he was single-handedly conquering thousands of soldiers for he was an army.

Judges 15:16

And Samson said, With the jawbone of an ass, heaps upon heaps, with the jaw of an ass have I slain a thousand men.

You're an army in your generation, not just a human being. You're too loaded to be rejected. You're too loaded for you to fail. There are so many potentials in you that a life time is too small for you to release them. This is why the Bible says that God has placed eternity in man. Ecclesiastes 3:11 says, “He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.” You see! The Scripture says that God has set eternity or the world in man. What God put in you, one life is too small for it to be accomplished.

Even scientists have proven that for many people when they die, they only use 10% of their real potentials. You were made like an onion; when you remove the outer layer, you may think that that’s all there is to the onion without knowing that there are more layers inside. There are more layers in you more than what you have seen and known currently.

Gideon used to think that he was a small and weak man, but through an encounter he discovered that what he was running away from what was supposed to be running away from him. When you haven’t found yourself in the volume of the book, the things that must be running away from you will be the very same things you'll be running away from.

Judges 6:12-16

And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him, The LORD is with thee, thou mighty man of valour. And Gideon said unto him, Oh my Lord, if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites. And the LORD looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites: have not I sent thee? And he said unto him, Oh my Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, my family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house. And the LORD said unto him, Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man.

POTENTIAL PRINCIPLE

When he found his potentials, he found out that he was capable of conquering all the Midianites as one man, despite thinking of himself as a weak and useless man. It's in the volume of the book where you will find what you're able to do as one man. There is a hidden man in you. There is a hidden woman in you. You will only find that hidden person in you in the volume of the book.

In Romans 8:19, the Bible says, “For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.” There is what you were born to manifest to your generation. The world is waiting for you to manifest. There is another you inside of you that people don't know yet. That's who you were born to manifest. There is another you inside of you that people don't know. When you find your potentials you find your real self. There is so much potential in you that are being covered by the dust of background, experiences, and mindset.

2 Corinthians 4:7

But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

Luke 17:21

Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.

There is a treasure and a kingdom in you, not a village or a town. Whatever is needed in your destiny is already inside of you. Whatever you need in your destiny is not outside of you but inside of you. You don't go to school to find what is needed in your destiny but to refine what is needed in your destiny.

POTENTIAL PRINCIPLE

When God created the first Adam, He put the garden outside of him. But for the second Adam – who is Christ – and us, the children of God, the garden is inside of us. The ability of the fish to swim is already in the fish. No one teaches a fish how to swim; it just swims because that's what is already in it. No one teaches a bird to fly but it flies on its own, because that's what is already in it. Like a river, flying flows out of the bird. You're not empty, you were born an original. You're not ordinary, you were born unique. God is not a duplicator; He is a creator.

1 Corinthians 2:9

But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

God has put things in you that eyes have not seen, and ears have not heard. What God has put in you is not found anywhere else apart from you. You're a masterpiece, not a mass product. A masterpiece is one of a kind while a mass product is of many same kind.

Albert Einstein once said, "If you judge a bird by its ability to swim, it may live it's whole life thinking it's a fool." Also John C. Maxwell once said, "So many people think they are not gifted because they focus so much on the gift of others.” There was a woman who thought she had nothing when she came to Prophet Elisha except a jar with a little oil. But that little oil was enough to change her whole story.

2 Kings 4:1-7

Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen. And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oil. Then he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; borrow not a few. And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full. So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured out. And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed. Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children of the rest.

That oil you think is small in your house is what you need for your life to change. You're not empty or not without anything! There is oil in your house – that's your potential. Your promotion in life is in the release of your potential. Your possession in life is in the release of your potential. Your prosperity in life is in the release of your potential. What you need to release is your oil, and then your life will begin to move forward.

You don't borrow the oil but the vessels, because the oil is your potential which is inborn and not acquired. You only borrow the vessels which implies to capacity, because capacity is acquired and not inborn. You already have the oil in your house; all that is needed is for you to borrow vessels. There is so much potential in you that we have been waiting for its release on earth.

God does not relate with you based on your mistakes but your potentials. God does not focus on your past but your potentials. What matters to God is not your past but your potentials. Peter denied Jesus, but when Jesus came back after His resurrection, He never focused on Peter's past but on his potentials. What God focuses on is not your history but what is hidden in you. God knows your history but He focuses on what is hidden in you.

VOLUME OF THE BOOK: COMING TO YOUR REAL SELF

PRODUCER PRINCIPLE

THERE is no book without an author. Every book must have an author. Similarly, there is an author of the book of your life. Your life is not your idea; there is an author of your life.

The Bible says in Hebrews 12:2, “Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.” There is an author of your life – Jesus. There is a producer of your life. You are not trying to come up with your own script; there is already an author of your life. Therefore, to know your life, you must go to the author who wrote about your life. Until you go to your author, you will lack accuracy and precision.

We are told to look unto Jesus Christ. To walk in the volume of the book, the only place for you to look up to is Jesus, not to your school or background. You are not even supposed to look up to men, because men will call you different things that are not real. Just like the way they called Jesus – some said He was John and others said He was Elijah.

Matthew 16:13-15

When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am? And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets. He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

You are not even supposed to look to your friends. The only place a person who wants to fulfil destiny must look to is Jesus, because He is the author of our lives. When Peter looked to the author, he was able to correctly say who Jesus was. This is Matthew 16:16-17, which says, “And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.”

The reason for the chaos in our world today is that we are trying to find the script outside of the author. All men who fulfilled destiny were not looking for destiny; they were busy looking and loving God and then destiny found them. All people who try to find destiny outside God, no matter how much they look for it, they never find it. No matter how much Saul looked for the donkeys of his father without the prophet, he never found them. But on the day him and the servants shifted their focus to looking for the prophet, they found the donkeys

1 Samuel 9:3-5

And the asses of Kish Saul's father were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, Take now one of the servants with thee, and arise, go seek the asses. And he passed through mount Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalisha, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of Shalim, and there they were not: and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not. And when they were come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant that was with him, Come, and let us return; lest my father leave caring for the asses, and take thought for us.

You see! For as long as they were looking for the horses, they never found them. Many people cannot find destiny because they want to find it without finding God. It all starts with finding God, then you can find destiny. If you try to find destiny alone, you will never find it. But when you shift your focus from finding destiny to finding God, that's when you will find your destiny.

1 Samuel 9:6-14, 18-20

And he said unto him, Behold now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is an honourable man; all that he saith cometh surely to pass: now let us go thither; peradventure he can shew us our way that we should go. Then said Saul to his servant, But, behold, if we go, what shall we bring the man? for the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God: what have we? And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, I have here at hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver: that will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way. (Beforetime in Israel, when a man went to enquire of God, thus he spake, Come, and let us go to the seer: for he that is now called a Prophet was beforetime called a Seer.) Then said Saul to his servant, Well said; come, let us go. So they went unto the city where the man of God was. And as they went up the hill to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said unto them, Is the seer here? And they answered them, and said, He is; behold, he is before you: make haste now, for he came to day to the city; for there is a sacrifice of the people to day in the high place: As soon as ye be come into the city, ye shall straightway find him, before he go up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat until he come, because he doth bless the sacrifice; and afterwards they eat that be bidden. Now therefore get you up; for about this time ye shall find him. And they went up into the city: and when they were come into the city, behold, Samuel came out against them, for to go up to the high place...Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the seer's house is. And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the seer: go up before me unto the high place; for ye shall eat with me to day, and to morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart. And as for thine asses that were lost three days ago, set not thy mind on them; for they are found. And on whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on thee, and on all thy father's house?

When Saul and the servants set out to find God through the prophet, they were able to find the donkeys. But as long as they were looking for the donkeys, they never found them. When they found God in the prophet, the lost donkeys were found. When you pursue God, you begin to discover your destiny. The goal is not to discover your destiny but to pursue God, and when you find God you will find your destiny. Your destiny is not something that was designed for you to be looking for, but rather something designed to be looking for you. But it does not look for you until you begin to look for God. Only the men who pursue God find destiny, not the men who look for destiny.

Dr Myles Munroe once said, “Nobody knows the purpose of a product like the manufacturer of the product.” The only place you know yourself is when you go to your Producer. Jeremiah 1:5 says, “Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.”

Encounters are places of conversations that introduce you to yourself. To know yourself and connect to the volume of the book, you must get to your Producer. The best way to find a product is to find the producer.

Confusion is a function of having a product without the producer. It is not enough to have a product, you must also have the producer. The problem has never been the purpose of the product but the connection to the producer of the product. A journey to real purpose starts with the producer.

Acts 22:6-15

And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me. And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest. And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me. And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do. And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus. And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there, Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him. And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth. For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard.

Apostle Paul was not looking for destiny; it was after an encounter that destiny found him. You will never deliver your purpose effectively and efficiently without a strong connection to the producer. The problem with Moses was that he was trying to find the purpose of the product without the producer.

Exodus 2:14-15

And he said, Who made thee a prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known. Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by a well.

Moses was trying to walk in purpose without the producer. So, the Hebrew people had to ask him, “Who has made you Lord over us?” He was trying to deliver purpose without the producer, so there was no efficiency and effectiveness in his venture. But when he came to the encounter at the burning bush, he was able to deliver purpose well and effectively.

Exodus 3:1-10

Now Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the backside of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb. And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed. And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt. And when the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here am I. And he said, Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. Moreover he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look upon God. And the LORD said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows; And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites. Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me: and I have also seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them. Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

You need the producer if you must deliver purpose effectively, because from Him you're able to receive the details and strategies on how to navigate with your purpose. Purpose without the producer is like getting lost in a forest without a map. Purpose without the producer is like embarking on a journey whose end you don't know. You need the producer for you to not be lost in the terrains of purpose.

Destiny is not something that you seek but it finds you as you seek the Lord. Destiny has always come as an interruption that people collide with in their journey of loving and looking for God. The journey to purpose starts with meeting the producer. The more you commune with the producer, the more the clarity you get on your purpose. Purpose becomes automatic when you are in touch with the producer. When you have a strong relationship with the producer, you will find the purpose of the product.

You need to keep beholding Him; the more you behold Him, the clearer your purpose becomes. Until you behold Him enough, purpose will still remain a mystery to you. In 2

PRODUCER PRINCIPLE

Corinthians 3:18, the Bible says, “But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.” Destiny is not a destination but a journey that requires continuous update of the details from the producer. Destiny is a journey, not a destination, because we are designed to move from glory to glory but the condition that secures this movement is beholding.

Purpose is revealed in phases. So, it takes continuous walk with God to have clarity of purpose. Purpose is not a constant but it evolves. This is why Joseph started a dreamer, then became an interpreter, and then became a strategic planner. Purpose evolves, but every evolving of purpose happens in the place of encounters. The place of encounters is the place where men evolve. This is why how God starts with a man most times is not how He finishes with the man. A stronger relationship with God results in the revelation of God, which reciprocates in the revelation of yourself. Do not pursue purpose; pursue the producer and you will find the purpose of the product.

Matthew 16:13-16

When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am? And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets. He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

After Peter correctly said who Jesus was, Jesus told him who he was. That means that when you know God, what will happen is that you will know yourself.

Matthew 16:17-19

And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

The deeper you launch with God, the more you dig into yourself. You will never dig into yourself until you launch deeper with God. You will never find purpose in the flesh; it is when you journey with God that you will find the hidden and deep things about your life.

1 Corinthians 2:9-12

But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

There are things that are freely given to us and it takes the Spirit of God to know them. It's time to strengthen our spiritual roots so that we should be able to get the hidden things that God has for us.

PROCESS PRINCIPLE

THE process is also another thing found in the volume of the book. When you connect to the producer, He begins to take you through the process. It is not enough to understand yourself, you must also go through the process. Many people know their purpose and what God wants to do with their lives but they are not willing to be taken through the process. See what the Bible says in the book of Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 18:1-6

The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words. Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels. And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it. Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel.

You see! God is the potter of our lives. He is the one who moulds us to become the vessels that will carry His purpose. The problem with so many people is that they are not in the potter's hands; they are still in their own hands. That's why there is a delay of their destinies. Process is what defines fulfilment.

PROCESS PRINCIPLE

There is no fulfilment without process. The level of fulfilment is defined by the level of process. What God told you is as true as He told you, but there is a process you must go through if you must walk in its fulfilment. Fulfilment is not a gift but a reward of going through the process.

What God told you is true but there is a process? What God told you is not a lie. You can never progress in life without the process. You can never proceed in life without the process. You can never prosper in life without the process. You can never perform in life without the process. Many people are not willing to go through the process because it's not always easy. The process by which God moulds and shapes people is not easy. That's why so many people died without seeing the fulfilment of what is in their books.

THE Ps OF PROCESS

Process involves three things: patience, pain, and permission.

1. PATIENCE

Process takes time. There is nothing God wants to do in your life that will happen overnight. Whatever God wants to do in your life happens overtime. There is no process without time. That's why it takes a lot of patience for you to walk in fulfilment.

Hebrews 6:12, 15

That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises...And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

PROCESS PRINCIPLE

When it comes to obtaining the promises, it's not going to be without patience. It will take patience for us to inherit the promises. Exodus 23:30 says, “By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land.” When it comes to purpose and walking in the volume of the book, it requires you to be patient because it comes to pass little by little. Anything of value takes time. There is no one who ever became great overnight. You only become great overtime. For you to withstand process, you need patience.

The difference between Here and There is ‘T’ which stands for Time. So, for you to move from here to there, it will take time which will require a lot of patience from you. When I look at successful men and women, I don't just look at where they are but also at how long it took for them to get there. There's no destination without duration. There's no shortcut to greatness. By the way, the longest road in life is the short cut. Fulfilment requires patience, not just faith.

2. PAIN

Process involves pain because when you go through it, you are tried by God. Being tried by God is not easy. It is usually where so many people run away.

Jeremiah 20:7-9

O LORD, thou hast deceived me, and I was deceived: thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me. For since I spake, I cried out, I cried violence and spoil; because the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision, daily. Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay.

The process is never sweet. Sometimes you will cry. It is okay to cry, but don't give up. Jeremiah was complaining to God when it looked like God had lied to him. When you are in the process, it looks like God lied to you because of the lots of pain you go through. Process is never simple. Process is never pleasant. Process involves pressure. In the process, everything looks like the opposite of what God told you.

Job 23:8-10

Behold, I go forward, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive him: On the left hand, where he doth work, but I cannot behold him: he hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him: But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

There will be seasons where it will look like God has left you. There will be seasons that will look like you are alone. There are seasons where heaven is silent. There are seasons where everything seems to be falling apart. There are seasons where everything seems to be shaking. There are seasons where it seems like you are alone. There are seasons where it looks like nothing will work out.

Psalms 66:10

For thou, O God, hast proved us: thou hast tried us, as silver is tried. Thou broughtest us into the net; thou laidst affliction upon our loins. Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads; we went through fire and through water: but thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.

God will pass you through moments where you will be proved. There will be moments when you will be afflicted. You will be tested. You will be challenged. You will be stretched. It looks like God has left you. It looks like God lied to you. It looks like God deceived you. This is where your pride is killed and you are humbled. You will be tried by pain before you walk in fulfilment.

3. PERMISSION

God does not work in a man beyond the permission he gives to Him. The permission you give to God is the level of influence of the Spirit over your life.

In Genesis 6:3, the Bible says, “And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.” The permission you give to God is the level of the influence that the Spirit of God has over your life. It’s not enough for you to have the Spirit of God, you must also give Him the permission to work in your life. The permission is how much willing and open you are to the dealings of God. Here is the truth: The key to speed is surrender.

Revelations 3:20

Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

PROCESS PRINCIPLE

If you resist God, you will delay yourself. The permission you give to God is the pace at which your destiny begins to move. God is always knocking but it is how much you open the door that defines how much your destiny will be actualized. How much you open the door is how much He enters and how much your destiny becomes fulfilled.

It is time for you to go through the process so that you should fulfil what is written in the volume of the book for your life.

THE VOLUME OF THE BOOK

YOU'RE NOT A PRODUCT OF PREDICTION BUT OF PRE-DESTINATION. THERE IS A VOLUME OF THE BOOK FOR YOUR LIFE. THE BIBLE SAYS IN HEBREWS 10:7 SAYS, "THEN SAID I, LO, I COME (IN THE VOLUME OF THE BOOK IT IS WRITTEN OF ME,) TO DO THY WILL, O GOD." THERE IS A WILL OF GOD YOU WERE BORN TO FULFIL IN YOUR GENERATION. THERE IS A FACE OF GOD THAT YOU ARE MEANT TO SHOW TO A GENERATION. THERE IS A DIMENSION OF GOD THAT YOU ARE BORN TO SHOW TO THE WORLD. THERE IS WHAT ONLY YOU CAN GIVE TO THIS TGENERATION THAT NO ONE ELSE WILL GIVE.

YOUR LIFE IS NOT A COINCIDENCE BUT A CLEAR CONSTRUCTION BY DIVINITY. THERE'S SOMETHING YOU MUST GIVE TO YOUR GENERATION DON'T LEAVE YOUR GENERATION THE SAME WAY YOU FOUND IT. THIS BOOKS AIMS TO ALIGN YOU SO THAT YOU CAN LIVE YOUR LIFE TO FULFILL THAT WHICH WAS WRITTEN IN THE VOLUME OF THE BOOK ABOUT YOU.
